

PRESS RELEASE

Thurs 23rd April - Thurs 7th May

<http://wordfestcrawley.org>
info@wordfestcrawley.org

@crawleywordfest
www.facebook.com/WORDfestcrawleysussex

Get Stuck In Day Programme

Sat 25 April 2015 FREE admission

- |         |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |           |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 11am    | Big Goldilocks and the Three BearsBooster Cushion Theatre                                                                                                                                     | Age: 3 +  |
|         | Story Writing Workshop with published children's author Siobham Rowden (repeated at 12pm and 2pm)                                                                                                 | Age: 8-14 |
|         | Story Writing Workshop with published children's author Eve Ainsworth (repeated at 12.30pm)                                                                                                       | Age: 8-14 |
|         | Story Writing Workshop with Mata Haggis, a multi-media storyteller, academic & games designer                                                                                                     | Age: 15 + |
| 12      | Minecraft 30-minute sessions: Groups of six (repeated at 2pm)                                                                                                                                     | Age: 6+   |
| 1pm     | Spoken word poet, Talia Randall's IncrEDIBLE poetry workshop - poems you can eat! (parents must accompany children to this activity)                                                              | All       |
| 2pm     | Comic Drawing Workshop with Hannah Eaton from independent graphic novel publisher Myriad                                                                                                          | Age: 7-14 |
|         | Storytime and crafts with published children's author Alice Hemming (her first book The Black and White Club , was recently read by Sir Derek Jacobi on CBeebies' Bedtime Stories ) | Age: <6   |
|         | Games Writing Workshop Mata Haggis who has developed games and animations that have been enjoyed by millions                                                                                      | Age: 16+  |
|         | Crafting a Graphic Novel with Gareth Brookes from independent graphic novel publisher Myriad                                                                                                      | Age: 11+  |
|         | Continues overleaf...                                                                                                                                                                             |           |
| All Day | Various arts and crafts activities will be running throughout the day, along with face-painting , a picnic area (bring your own refreshments) and Bewbush Playbus            | Age: All  |

Please note: All events are free but many are ticketed as space is limited. Book in person at Crawley Library, call 01293 651751 or visit <http://wordfestcrawley.org/contact>.

Visit <http://wordfestcrawley.org> for more background and information.